THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JULY 10, 2011

HIGH MASS AT 10:30 AM

Organ—Méditation from Symphonie No. 1 Charles-Marie Widor (1844-1937)

Introit—Dum clamarem Mode 3

Dum clamarem ad Dominum, exaudivit vocem meam, ab his qui appropinquant mihi: et humiliavit eos, qui est ante saecula, et manet in aeternum: iacta cogitatum tuum in Domino, et ipse te enutriet. Ps. Exaudi Deus orationem meam, et ne despexeris deprecationem meam: intende mihi, et exaudi me.

When I called upon the Lord, he heard my voice and delivered me from those who pressed hard upon me: the Lord God brought them low, he who sits enthroned of old, whose kingdom will have no end: cast your burden upon the Lord, and he will strengthen you. Ps. Hear my prayer O God, do not hide yourself from my petition: listen to me and answer me. (Psalm 55)

Kyrie—Missa de Sancta Maria Magdalena Healey Willan (1880-1968)

Lord, have mer-cy up- on us. Christ, have mer-cy up- on us.

Lord, have mer-cy up- on us. Christ, have mer-cy up- on us.

Christ, have mer-cy up- on us. Christ, have mer-cy up- on us.

Lord, have mer-cy up- on us. Christ, have mer-cy up- on us.

Lord, have mer-cy up- on us.

Gloria—Missa de Sancta Maria Magdalena Healey Willan

Glo-ry be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men.

We praise thee, we bless thee, we wor- ship thee, we glo- ri- fy thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glo- ry, O Lord

God, heav'n-ly King, God—the Fa-ther al- migh- ty—
 O Lord, the on- ly be- got- ten Son, Je- sus Christ, O Lord God Lamb of God, Son of the Fa-ther, that tak- est a- way the sins of the world, have mer- cy up- on us. Thou that tak- est a- way the sins of the world, re- ceive our prayer. Thou that sit- test at the right hand of God the Fa- ther, have mer- cy up- on us. For thou on- ly art ho- ly. Thou on- ly art the Lord. Thou on- ly, O Christ, with the Ho- ly Ghost, art Most High in the glo- ry of God the Fa- ther. A— men.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading—Isaiah 55: 10-13

As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it. For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall be to the LORD for a memorial, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual—Psalm 65: 9-14

Setting by James McGregor (b. 1930)

Refrain—Cantor, then all repeat

Let the val-leys shout for joy and sing.

You visit the earth and water it abundantly; you make it very plenteous; the river of God is full of water. You prepare the grain, for so you provide for the earth.

All repeat the refrain

You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges; with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase. You crown the year with your goodness, and your paths overflow with plenty.

All repeat the refrain

May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing and the hills be clothed with joy. May the meadows cover themselves with flocks and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; let them shout for joy and sing.

All repeat the refrain

Second Reading—Romans 8: 1-11

There is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law-- indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

People Thanks be to God.

Prayers of the People—Form VII

Let us pray for the holy Catholic Church throughout the world: that the Lord God would deign to keep it in unity, peace, and safety.

Here and after each petition is sung

∞. Lord, in your mer-cy, ℞. Hear our prayer.

Let us pray for Mark our bishop, for all bishops, priests, and deacons, and for all who minister in Christ's holy Church: that in their various callings they may serve God faithfully and devoutly.

Let us pray for all who do not know God as he is revealed in Jesus Christ: that the light of the Gospel may shine in their hearts.

Let us pray for all the nations and peoples of the world, and for those who bear authority among them: that in all their doings they may seek both peace and justice.

Let us pray for the sick and the sorrowful, the hungry and the homeless, the desolate and the oppressed: that the Father of mercies would strengthen, support, and relieve them.

Let us pray for the faithful departed: that the Lord our God would grant them refreshment, light, and peace.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession of Sin

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

At the end of the Eucharistic prayer all people are welcome to the High Altar. If for any reason one does not wish to receive Communion or is not baptized, he or she is most welcome to receive a blessing (indicated by crossing both arms over one's chest). The ministers will bring the Sacrament to those who tell an usher that they cannot easily climb the steps.

Offertory Antiphon—Ad te Domine

Mode 2

Ad te Dominum levavi animam meam: Deus meus, in te confido: non erubescam, neque irideant me inimici mei: etenim universi qui te expectant, non confundentur.

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul: my God, in you I put my trust: let me not be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me: let none who look to you be confounded. (Psalm 25)

Hymn 388

Eucharistic Prayer A

Sanctus arr. by James McGregor

Memorial Acclamation arr. by Mason Martens

♯ The Lord be with you. ♯ And also with you. ♯ Lift up your hearts. ♯ We lift them to the Lord. ♯ Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. ♯ It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life; you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The people remain standing. The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world. On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is ris-en. Christ will come a- gain.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Lord's Prayer

The Celebrant begins

And now as our Sa- vior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All continue

Our Fa- ther, who art in hea- ven, hal- low- ed be thy Name, thy king- dom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in hea- ven. Give us this day our dai- ly bread, and for- give us our trespass- es, as we for- give those who tres- pass a- gainst us. And lead us not in- to temp- ta- tion, but de- liv- er us from e- vil. For thine is the king-dom and the pow'r and the glo- ry, for ev- er and ev- er. A- men.

Breaking of the Bread

✠ Christ our Pass- o- ver is sac- ri- ficed for us;

✠ There- fore let us keep the feast.

Agnus Dei—Mass in B minor

J. S. Bach (1685-1750)

Distribution of Holy Communion

Communicants may receive the bread directly onto the tongue or into folded hands, and then after consuming the bread, may drink the wine from the chalice. If the bread is retained in one's hands, a chalice bearer will dip it into the wine, and place it on the tongue.

Communion Antiphon—Qui manducat

Mode 6

Qui manducat carnem meam et bibit sanguinem meum in me manet et ego in eo, dicit Dominus.

He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me and I in him, says the Lord. (John 6)

Postcommunion Prayer

Grant, O almighty and everlasting God, that we, who have received these holy mysteries, may grow in grace and by your mercy may attain to the fullness of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
